Subject: Offer to Purchase; Kiahuna; Pukalani

Dr. Kinoshita,

Attached (tif file) is an offer for Sports Shinko's consideration. Below are some highlights:

Buyer: Ron Allred

Term: All cash, no financing

Deposit: $1 million NON-refundable immediatly

Closing: December 17, 2001

Property: (1) Pukalani ~ all assets (golf, land, sewer treatment)

(2) Kiahuna ~ only the golf course asset, including the 9-hole expansion, but NOT the residential development land)

Price: $11 million

Option:

To purchase Mililani Country Club for $8.0 million

Please note that the portions of Kiahuna not desired by Mr. Allred are those that Moshe Silage made an offer on the other week.

Also note, we have not heard back from Smith Development on Pukalani.

After your review, let's discuss.

Aloha,

Doug

               Yes.
          Α.
 3
               Had Mr. Silagi been making offers prior to 4
      this; do you recall?
 5
               Yes. I do believe we had been contacted by 6
     Mr. Moshe Silagi through another broker prior to that.
 7
          Ο.
               Did Sports Shinko make -- well, let me back up.
 8
     Page one of Exhibit 47, Mr. Pothul has recommended on 9
     behalf of Colliers that Sports Shinko make a 10
     counteroffer; is that right?
1.1
         Α.
               Yes.
12
               Do you remember if Sports Shinko made a 13
     counteroffer or responded to this offer from Mr. Silagi 14
     in any way?
               As I recall, this offer was also communicated
15
         Α.
16
     to the president and the president indicated that the 17
     price being offered was too low, that it wasn't going to 18
     go anywhere and that it ended there.
19
              So same question as before: Sports Shinko, as 20
     far as you recall, did not ask Mr. Silagi for more 21
     details or whether they would assume the management 22
     contract for Sports Shinko Kauai with RMS or any other details; is that right?
23
24
         Α.
              I believe so.

MR. MELCHINGER:

25

This is Exhibit 48.

(Exhibit 48 marked for identification.) 1 BY MR. MELCHINGER: 2 3 Q. Showing you what's been marked Exhibit 48 to your deposition. When you've had a chance to review it, 4 could you tell me whether you recognize this document, 5 6 please. 7 Α. Yes, I do recognize this. So you recognize this as an e-mail to you from 8 Ο. Mr. Pothul, dated November 15, 2001? 9 10 Α. Yes. 11 Q. Did you read it on or about the day that it was 12 By which I mean November 15, 2001. 13 I read it and following the typical 14 protocol, I relayed it to Fukuda, and what I mean by that is I relayed the information, that is the terms, to 15 Mr. Fukuda. 16 17 Again, for this property, or for this offer from Mr. Allred, was Colliers the one who was handling 18 dealing with Mr. Allred; is that right? 19 20 Α. Yes. However, prior to the time that this offer was submitted, I met with Mr. Allred on the island 21 of Maui along with a Mr. Scott Mitchell who was with 22 Colliers and I spoke with Mr. Allred there. 23 Mitchell is M-i-t-c-h-e-l-1, and two Ts. 24 was the substance of your discussion with Mr. Allred and 25

Mr. Mitchell?

- A. Mr. Allred was a developer with some two decades of experience in doing development work on the Mainland. He was involved with a ski resort together with someone from Japan and he said that as a result, he was used to dealing with Japanese companies. As far as why he was interested in the property, Mr. Allred noted that he was interested in Maui because he came there often and that he wanted to own a property on the island. And he said given the fact that he was a professional developer, that he wanted us to show him the ebidt figures, that is the earnings before income depreciation tax figures, and that he would review those figures and then submit an offer.
- Q. When you met with him, had you already spoken with the president or Mr. Fukuda? I'm sorry, about Exhibit 48, about this offer.
- A. No, I met with him prior to the time that this offer came in, but needless to say, I did tell
 Mr. Fukuda and get the approval of the president with regard to the idea of meeting with him.
- Q. So did this offer come in after you gave him the tax figures that he wanted; is that right?
 - A. Yes, I believe so.
 - Q. Was there any follow up from Sports Shinko

Colliers after this came in, after this offer Exhibit 48

- A. I don't really recall, however, I believe that I did in every instance what I was instructed to do by the president. If he said to reject the offer, I rejected it. If he said to just leave it hanging there, I would just leave it hanging there. I did whatever the president instructed me to do. However, I have no specific recollection as to what was done subsequently in this case.
- Q. So you don't recall asking Mr. Allred or asking Colliers to follow up with Mr. Allred about whether they would assume the management contract for any of these properties, Sports Shinko Pukulani, Sports Shinko Kauai, or Sports Shinko Mililani?
- A. I do not. However, from Sports Shinko's standpoint, our opinion was that Mr. Allred was a professional developer and that we thought he would take a pretty severe stance and that it was almost a guarantee that he would end up lowering that offered figure of $11 million. So we didn't view this as a particularly great offer.
- Q. For any of these discussions or communications with these potential buyers, did you talk to Mr. Nishida or Mr. Tomita about the nature of your discussions with any of these potential buyers? Α. Not at all. You mentioned before that the listing and the Q. marketing efforts from Colliers were supposed to be confidential; is that right? Α. Yes. Was it confidential even from Mr. Nishida or Q. anybody at RMS? No, they were aware that the properties were to Α. be sold because we needed to get materials from them. So they provided due diligence documents 0. regarding the properties; is that right? Α. Yes.

- Q. Did the president or Mr. Fukuda ever discuss with you how important it was that a buyer assume the RMS management agreements?
- A. No.

 - MR. KOMEIJI: Clarification, the topic being?
